

ASSIGNMENT (4)

Part 1: Multiple Choice (MCQ)

1. Agile methods were created mainly because: Answer: b) Traditional methods had too much overhead
 2. Agile methods mainly focus on: Answer: c) Delivering working software quickly
 3. Which value is part of the Agile Manifesto? Answer: c) Customer collaboration over contract negotiation
 4. Agile development assumes that: Answer: b) Requirements will change frequently
 5. Agile methods work best for: Answer: b) Small to medium co-located teams
 6. A disadvantage of agile methods is: Answer: b) Difficulty keeping customers engaged
 7. Agile development and maintenance: which statement is TRUE? Answer: c) Minimal documentation may reduce maintainability
 8. In plan-driven development: Answer: b) Stages and outputs are planned in advance
 9. Agile development typically: Answer: b) Interleaves specification, design, and implementation
 10. Agile methods struggle when: Answer: c) Systems are large and regulated
-

Part 2: True / False Questions

1. Agile development welcomes changes in requirements. True
2. Agile methods rely on extensive documentation. False
3. Plan-driven development can still use incremental development. True
4. Agile methods depend on strong customer involvement. True
5. Agile methods are ideal for real-time systems with strict timing requirements. False
6. Agile teams work best when co-located (in the same place). True
7. Agile methods eliminate the need for skilled developers. False
8. Agile methods reduce overhead by focusing on working software. True
9. Prioritizing changes is simple when many stakeholders are involved. False

10. Agile methods emphasize keeping the system simple. True